Notification of Reopening of Four Japanese Restaurants

We have confirmed that employees working at four Japanese restaurants within our hotel experienced symptoms of illness. In order to prioritize the safety of our guests and staff, we voluntarily suspended operations at the four restaurants beginning Saturday, February 7.

After implementing the necessary safety measures and ensuring a safe environment for our guests, we will resume operations at the four restaurants starting Friday, February 27.

We deeply apologize for any concern and inconvenience this matter may have caused to our guests and all related parties. We sincerely appreciate your understanding and continued support and patronage.
