Notice of changes hotel's child policy

Dear valuable guest,

The Hotel Seiryu Kyoto Kiyomizu would like to announce a change to our child policy. The age of children able to share a bed with an adult change from children aged under 6 to under 13. We appreciate your understanding and cooperation.

1. Effective date

Applies to new reservations after April 1st, 2024

2. Operational change points

| Age classification                                | Before                       | After                                |
|---|------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| Age of children able to share a bed with an adult | Children from 0 –5 years old | Children from 0 –12 years old |
| Adult person charges are applicable.              | Children over 6 years old    | Children over 13 years old    |

3. Remarks

Children under 13 years sharing a bed with an adult are subject to an additional charge if breakfast is required. There is a limit of one child per each bed. A King bed room is one child, a Twin room is two children.

4. Restrictions on children's use of hotel facilities

Children aged under 6 are not allowed to enter the guest lounge or restaurant library (breakfast venues) at any time. In-room dining will be served if you would like to have a breakfast with children under 6 years old.

※ For restrictions at the on-site partner restaurants "Benoit Kyoto" and "K36 The Bar & Rooftop", please carefully check the official website respectively.
