KYOTO, Japan – known for its rich traditional culture, Kyoto has long been a popular destination for travelers seeking to immerse themselves in the traditions of Japan.

The enigmatic charm of geisha, known as geiko and maiko in the Kyoto dialect, has captivated people around the world. However, the opportunity to encounter a maiko, or apprentice geisha, is a rare and highly sought-after experience. Recognizing the desire of travelers to immerse themselves in authentic traditions, The Hotel Seiryu Kyoto Kiyomizu is delighted to announce a new weekly event exclusively for its guests, featuring captivating performances by maiko from the historic Miyagawa-cho district.

The Hotel Seiryu Kyoto Kiyomizu is proud to present a unique opportunity for its guests to witness the mesmerizing artistry of maiko dance up close. Every Thursday, guests will have the privilege of experiencing the grace and elegance of maiko performances, immersing themselves in the captivating world of geisha culture.

The event aims to satisfy the curiosity of visitors who are fascinated by the mystique surrounding maiko and their elusive world. By bringing maiko to the hotel, guests can now witness their artistry firsthand, gaining insight into the centuries-old traditions that have shaped Kyoto's cultural landscape.

Beyond the enchanting performances, attendees will also have the opportunity to engage in photography sessions and conversations with the maiko. This unique interaction allows for a deeper understanding of the meaning behind their dances and the intricacies of their traditional attire. Guests will be able to capture the essence of this ancient art form and create memories that will last a lifetime.

For an authentic and unforgettable experience, join us every Thursday at The Hotel Seiryu Kyoto Kiyomizu. Immerse yourself in the captivating world of geisha culture, feel the authentic traditions, and create memories that will last a lifetime.
