

The Hotel Seiryu Kyoto Kiyomizu,

Enhances Breakfast Menu to Cater to Diverse Guest Needs and Well-being

KYOTO, Japan - The Hotel Seiryu Kyoto Kiyomizu, the closest luxury hotel to the renowned UNESCO World Heritage Site, Kiyomizu-dera Temple, is delighted to announce the enhancement of its breakfast menu, starting from October 15, 2024, to further fulfill guests' well-being during their hotel stay. With a focus on promoting a blissful start to the day, The Hotel Seiryu Kyoto Kiyomizu has been dedicated to providing a well-being breakfast experience. Against the backdrop of an increasing number of inbound guests, the hotel recognizes the importance of meeting the evolving needs for diverse food options and creating an environment where everyone can enjoy their meals with peace of mind, regardless of nationality or dietary restrictions, to enhance overall well-being.

To address these diversifying food preferences, The Hotel Seiryu Kyoto Kiyomizu has decided to introduce a vegan menu and upgrade the existing breakfast options. In addition to the vegan menu, the hotel will incorporate improvements to the current offerings, providing a wider range of choices. Through these enhancements, the hotel aims to realize a well-being hotel stay experience for guests, starting from breakfast.

The Hotel Seiryu Kyoto Kiyomizu is renowned for its exceptional hospitality and picturesque location, providing guests with a tranquil retreat in the heart of Kyoto. With the introduction of the new breakfast menu, the hotel aims to further elevate the guest experience and ensure that every visitor can start their day with a nourishing and delightful meal.
